DAYTON, Ohio, December 13, 1969 --- Arthur O. Fosher, Municipal Judge of the City of Dayton, and Ken Bockenstette of Cincinnati, former University of Dayton football quarterback, have been elected to the National Board of the University's Alumni Association. L. William Crotty, President of Van Dyne Crotty Company in Dayton, was re-elected to a second term. All terms are of three years' duration.

The trio assumed their places at the annual meeting of the National Board today (Saturday, December 13) in UD's Kennedy Union. Judge Fisher is a 1948 graduate of UD while Mr. Bockenstette, who played quarterback in 1955 and 1956, is a 1957 graduate. Mr. Crotty received his degree in 1952.

Two former UD athletes, basketballer Jack McCarthy, '58, and footballer, Don (Butch) Zimmerman, '58, assumed positions on the University's Athletic Board at the same time. McCarthy is a new member. Zimmerman was elected to a second three-year term. Butch was quarterback in 1956 and 1957 for the Flyers. McCarthy was the starting center on the 1957-58 basketball team which went to the finals of the National Invitation Tournament. They were beaten by the Cinderella team, Xavier, in overtime.

Mr. Elwood Zimmer, the University's Director of Development, reported at the meeting that the Kettering Challenge program had gone over $900,000 after two years of solicitation. The Challenge, which was made early in 1968 by Mr. and Mrs Eugene Kettering through a $1,000,000 gift, has one more year to run. The alumni were asked to match the Kettering gift over a three-year period.
